Meet the Artist: Paul Francois

Meet the artist Paul Francois at Central Library and view "Through My Eyes", an exhibition of his work.

Francois said: "I use the world around me for creating my art, which I reference as Industrial Surrealism. I paint to see reality from a slightly different perspective. When people look at my work, I hope they will take the time to see the minute aspects of the hidden and overt details of my paintings and enjoy a view of our surroundings through my eyes and imagination."

Adults. No registration.
